

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

1.9
H753 Pam

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
BUREAU OF HOME ECONOMICS
WASHINGTON, D. C.

PARTIAL LIST OF MAGAZINES ISSUING MATERIAL RELATING TO HOME-MAKING

In addition to publishing current articles on various phases of home-making, the following magazines offer the services indicated:

The American Home, Garden City, N. Y.

Booklets, 10 to 60 cents, on house, camp, and garage plans; interior decoration; cookery; etiquette.

Better Homes and Gardens, Meredith Publishing Co., Des Moines, Iowa.

Leaflets, 4 cents each, on various phases of child care and training, foods and equipment, interior decoration, handicraft, gardening, books, club work.

Booklets, 10 to 50 cents, on child care and training; foods and equipment; interior decoration; home building; gardening.

The Country Gentleman, The Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Material, 3 cents each, on handicraft (basketry, embroidery, quilt patterns, etc.), rural community work and club programs, refinishing chairs (rush, cane, and reed seating), child care, cookery.

The Country Home, The Crowell Publishing Co., 250 Park Avenue, New York City.

Leaflets, 3 to 15 cents, on cooking, entertainment, decoration, handicraft, etc. Patterns and materials for quilts and other types of handicraft.

Delineator, Butterick Building, New York City.

Booklets, 10 to 30 cents, on entertainment, child care, cookery, etiquette, fashion, interior decoration, beauty, home management.

The Farm Journal, Washington Square, Philadelphia, Pa.

Informal mimeographed and printed material, most of which is sent free, on foods, entertainment, household management, child welfare, health and beauty, rural club work, etiquette, interior decoration, handicraft, home equipment, money making. Quilt and dress patterns for sale at 10 cents.

The Farmer's Wife, Webb Publishing Co., St. Paul, Minn.

Booklets, 2 to 25 cents, on home furnishing, handicraft, clothing, health and beauty, etiquette, child welfare, club programs, entertainment helps, home improvement, flowers, gardens, landscaping, food score cards.

Good Housekeeping, 57th Street at Eighth Avenue, New York City.

Publications, 10 to 50 cents, on household management, cookery, Health and beauty, travel, interior decoration, fashions and needlework, entertainment.

House Beautiful, 8 Arlington Street, Boston, Mass.

Readers' Service Department answers special inquiries regarding equipment, decorating, and gardening problems.

Home Builders' Service Department answers questions pertaining to architecture and building and publishes portfolios of small house plans.

Ladies' Home Journal, The Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Leaflets, 3 to 10 cents, on menus and cookery, kitchen planning, toys, purchasing leaflets.

McCall's Magazine, 230 Park Avenue, New York City.

Booklets and leaflets, 8 to 30 cents, on parties and entertainments for home, church, and club; cookery and health; etiquette; beauty; interior decoration, available from the Service Editor, McCall's, Dayton, Ohio.

Material on sewing available through the Publicity Department of the McCall Company, 230 Park Avenue, New York City.

Pictorial Review, 222 West 39th Street, New York City.

Free leaflets on beauty, cookery, interior decoration, entertainment, club work.

Booklets, 20 to 50 cents, on house planning and decorating, dressmaking, beauty, cookery.

The progressive Farmer and Southern Ruralist, Atlanta, Ga.

Issues a bulletin on landscape gardening and plans for farm homes.

The Small Home, 1200 Second Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Architectural style books, 25 cents each, containing house plans of particular types, and other material on designs for small houses.

The Southern Planter, Richmond, Va.

Issues no leaflets of its own, but distributes those issued by various other organizations. Gives advice and information by correspondence.

Successful Farming, Meredith Publishing Co., Des Moines, Iowa.

Booklets and leaflets, 2 to 50 cents, on clothing, handicrafts, cooking, entertainment, child care, quilting and rug patterns, club work.

Woman's Home Companion, The Crowell Publishing Co., 250 Park Avenue, New York City.

Booklets, from 10 to 50 cents, on entertainment, camping, fashions, recipes and menus, interior furnishings, gardens, good citizenship, good looks, money making, handicraft, travel, house-building.